

First time ever offered to High School Students:
Take a course at the renowned UPenn Center for Bioethics!

Summer '09
BIOE (Bioethics) 209 920:

Mortal Bioethics: Issues in the End of Life

Instructor: Autumn Fiester, PhD
Senior Fellow, Center for Bioethics

Summer Session II
Tuesdays & Thursdays, 10:00am-12:30pm
July 6- Aug. 13, 2009
3401 Market St, Suite 320, Classroom 331

Come explore:

- Ethical issues related to physician-assisted suicide, euthanasia, withholding & withdrawing care
- Important U.S. legal cases, from Quinlan to Schiavo
- Writings on death from the Ancient Romans to contemporary thinkers
- Questions, such as: Why is death bad? Can there be death with dignity? What is a "good" death?

For application materials, go to:
<http://www.bioethics.upenn.edu/ugrad/>

